

Australians and COVID-19

Aussies are choosing trusted brands that deliver safety and value

These findings show the extent to which coronavirus is affecting people's daily lives as at 23 March 2020, but we recognise that it's a rapidly changing event. There has been a big shift in consumer attitudes towards the coronavirus situation in the last 2 weeks, in line with the rapidly changing situation and increased restrictions. Product affordability, safety and availability are most important to Australians.

Attitudes

45% of Australians still feel confident they will stay safe with precautions and good hygiene with those aged 45-54 most concerned

More Aussies expressed significant concern of coronavirus impact on their daily life over the past 2 weeks

March 9

March 23

Aussies are increasingly worried about falling sick, no matter how much they take care of themselves.

March 9

March 23

Aussies aged 55-69 are the most positive about their health in this crisis despite being at risk

51% believe they will stay safe with precautions and good hygiene

Just 1 in 4 are worried about falling sick no matter what

Financial Security

Aussies are overwhelmingly more concerned about their financial security as new restrictions threaten jobs and income.

Aussies are looking for support to be more proactive about financial planning and security

March 9

March 23

Aussies are increasingly worried that coronavirus will be worse than an economic recession with the risk of job loss

March 9

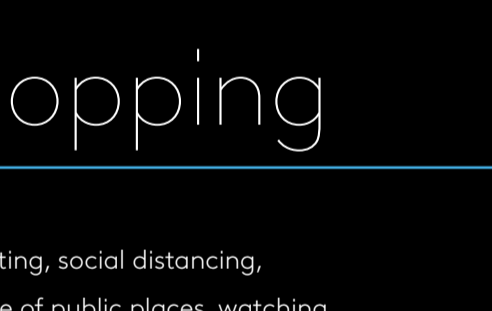

March 23

Daily Life

Most Aussies are reasonably confident we won't run out of the essentials with 6 in 10 confident that we won't end up in a situation of scarcity but 16% stockpiling.

There has been significant reduction in public activities over the last 2 weeks

March 9 March 23

Food delivery had some appeal to Aussies in the 2 weeks prior to closure of restaurants and cafés

Increasing use of food delivery services

March 9

March 23

Home entertainment has significantly grown despite reduction of live sports programming as games cancelled

Streaming content more

March 9

March 23

Watching televised sports more

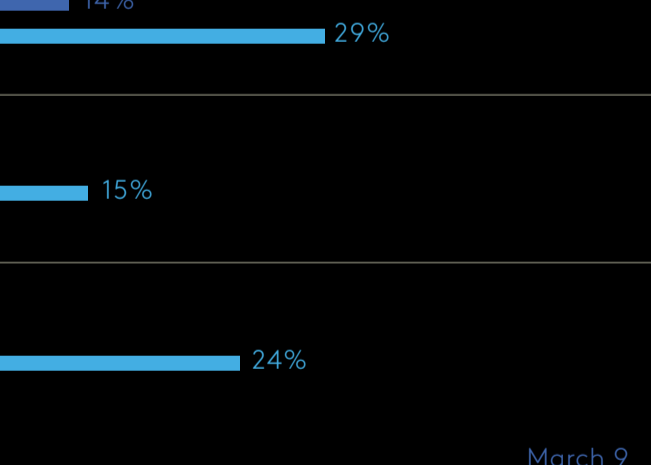

March 9

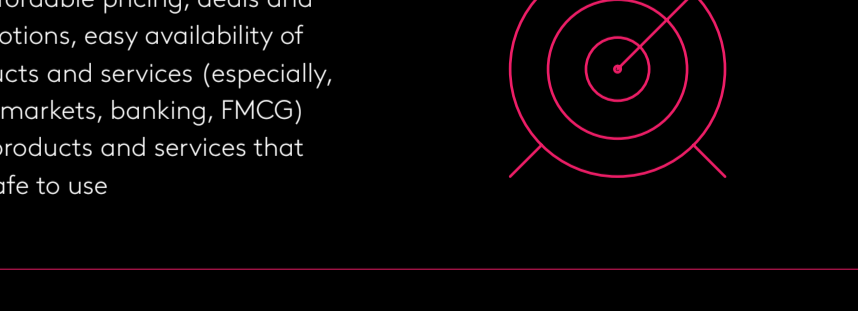

March 23

Shopping

Self-isolating, social distancing, avoidance of public places, watching spend and availability of supermarket delivery spots is impacting online shopping behaviours.

Online shopping is important. 74% are still purchasing online at the same rate as 2 weeks ago with 1 in 3 reducing in-store shopping.

March 9 March 23

Travel

Borders closing, social distancing measures and government bans have drastically changed the intent to travel despite previously planning to visit bush-fire ravaged regions

6 in 10 Aussies cancelled domestic travel plans in the past 2 weeks

March 9

March 23

Brand Expectations

Aussies want brands to focus on affordable pricing, deals and promotions, easy availability of products and services (especially, supermarkets, banking, FMCG) and products and services that are safe to use

The most important focus for brands by sector

March 9 March 23

About the study

This study is based on an online survey of 500 Australian consumers between the ages of 18 and 90. Fieldwork was conducted between 6-9 March and again between 20 - 23 March 2020. Find out more at www.kantaraustralia.com

About Kantar

Kantar is the world's leading evidence-based insights and consulting company. We have a complete, unique and rounded understanding of how people think, feel and act, globally and locally in over 90 markets. By combining the deep expertise of our people, our data resources and benchmarks, our innovative analytics and technology, we help our clients understand people and inspire growth. www.kantaraustralia.com